THE DELTA GAMMA LAMBDA FOUNDATION is a 501 (c) (3) organization operating under federal tax identification number 31-1447544. DGLF was established with the assistance of the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated. Founded in 1906, on the campus of Cornell University, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is the first Greek intercollegiate fraternity established by African Americans. Prominent members include Nobel Prize winner Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Justice Thurgood Marshall, Olympian Jesse Owens, as well as Cincinnati's First African-American Mayor Theodore M. Berry, Iconic Cincinnati Judge William A. McClain and numerous current and former American leaders who have adopted the principles of —"Manly Deeds, Scholarship, and Love for All Mankind."

DELTA GAMMA LAMBDA FOUNDATION ACTIVITIES

The Delta Gamma Lambda Foundation actively promotes programs that directly benefit Cincinnati area youth.

- Alpha Esquire Youth Group- A Rites of Passage program for youth ages of 10-17, which prepares youth for manhood by implementing workshops on Conflict Resolution, Goal Setting, Etiquette, Career Planning and Study Habits. Alpha Esquire's Moto: "If it is to be, it must begin with me!"
- Black History Month Quiz Bowl- Youth teams demonstrate knowledge of Black History in a competitive format.
- Go-to-High School, Go-to-College- Annual workshop to motivate youth to succeed in high school and seek higher education.
- Project Alpha- A March of Dimes supported teenage pregnancy prevention program which focuses on sex education and the responsibility of young males.
- Scholarship Program- More than $100,000 in college scholarships have been awarded to Cincinnati Area Youth.
